

Hello

This an invitation to Ääri-performance. Ääri is a durational performance by Reality Research Center occurring over a year. It studies the possibilities for artistic practices situated outside of so called digicapitalism. The performance is accessed through participation in the rules below.

THE RULES

1. The performance is analogue ~~and~~ as it happens outside of digital recording and communication.
2. The core of the performance consists of monthly meetings, that take place every second Saturday from 15.00-18.00. The location of each meeting is decided in the previous meeting.
3. The meetings take place in ~~spaces~~ secure and private spaces free from online interventions of mobile phones, tablets, computers, televisions and other such devices. This includes communication that occurs outside of these meetings.
4. The makers of the performance are those who attend the meetings. The makers define the nature and the modes of operation of the performance in each meeting.
5. One is invited to the performance through this letter. Do not document the letter. Do not show it, or talk about it, to anyone.
6. There are ~~two~~ strings of two colours in the envelope.
Green = I will attend the next meeting.
Red = I will not attend the next meeting.
Take one of each. When you have made your choice, tie the right string to the fence at the spot marked with an X.

7. This is a circular letter. When you have read it and taken the strings, put it back to the envelope. Give it to the person of your choice.
8. The performance has started in the first meeting on the 11th of November 2017, and it will end in the last meeting on the 10th of November 2018.

The next meeting is at 15.00 on the 10th of March 2018. Meeting at Kauppatori, by the Suomenlinna ferry.
